Information about beneficiaries and appointment of beneficiary

Beneficiaries in case of death due to accident according to the insurance conditions

Förmånstagare är i följande ordning:

- husband/wife/common-law spouse/registered partner and child/children
- legal heirs

Husband/wife/registered partner is a beneficiary even during the pending case regarding dissolution of marriage or partnership.

A registered partner is a person with whom the insured has registered a partnership in accordance with the Registered Partnership Act (1994:1117). The act refers to persons of the same sex.

Child/children is the insured's child/children, who is the legal heir of the insured. This applies equally for children born inside and outside the marriage. Should the child be deceased, the child's heirs will inherit him/her. "Child/children" also incorporates adoptive children and its heirs, but not step children or foster children. The compensation will be shared in accordance with inheritance law.

Change of appointment of beneficiary

A change of appointment of beneficiary must be made in writing and sent to Europeiska ERV Filial. A will or similar letter of intention is not regarded as an appointment of beneficiary.

Change of employment (relevant to Corporate Travel insurance and Corporate Expatriate insurance)

In case of change of employment, any other appointment of beneficiary will be valid as long as the employment is continued and the employer has a valid insurance agreement with Europeiska ERV Filial.

Should the insured change employer the appointment is no longer valid. Anyone who has appointed a beneficiary and who would like this to be valid after change of employer, and when the new employer also has signed an insurance agreement with Europeiska ERV Filial, should supply a new appointment of beneficiary when the new employment begins.
